

DELEGATES INSTRUCTED TO SUPPORT MR. BRYAN

County Democrats Favor Old Leader

DELEGATES TO MILWAUKEE

Are Instructed to Cast Vote
---Skaar and Doherty
Address Meeting

County democrats in convention at the court house this afternoon endorsed William Jennings Bryan for president in 1908 and instructed the seventeen delegates elected to represent La Crosse county at the state convention in Milwaukee, to support Bryan there.

Bryan was the idol of the convention, proving that La Crosse county is not behind the times in falling in line with a whoop for the great commoner. From indications in speeches and sentiment at the convention Bryan is, if possible, more popular than ever with La Crosse county democrats.

The convention was called to order at 1 p. m. P. W. Mahoney was elected temporary chairman and E. J. Kneen of Bangor temporary secretary.

Resolutions were adopted instructing the delegates to the state convention to support Bryan for president and authorizing them to cast their vote as a whole.

The delegates to the state democratic convention are: John F. Doherty, William Wolfe, P. W. Mahoney, Robert Gifford, E. J. Kneen, Bangor; Dr. A. DeRinck, Bangor; C. W. Hunt, J. M. Sieger, Peter Lehnen, Geo. W. Young, O. J. Sorenson, F. A. Schaldach, William Torrance, William Brooks.

Hopeful of County.

Speakers Doherty and Skaar in their addresses expressed confidence that the democrats would be successful this fall in the county elections. They pointed out that they were defeated by a small margin last time and that with the increased strength of democracy they should win out in 1906.

REGULAR "PROM" MAKES OVER $50

First Time in History Commencement Dance is Profitable

The regular high school dance held last night at Germania Hall netted the Junior class over $50. As a result each member of the class will receive a class pin. The committee worked hard to make the ball a success and results have justified the good judgment of the class in appointing them. This is the first time any junior class ever derived any benefit from its annual ball.

WANT TRYSTING PLACE LIGHTED

A petition was presented to the buildings and grounds committee of the county board which is in session at the court house, to have the court house park lighted at night. The park has become a trysting place for lovers, until pedestrians have begun to object. The committee is also considering coal contracts.

CHILD TO BE PERFECTED IN OVEN

Little Miss Hogan Born Several Months Too Soon Will Live

- NEW YORK, June 23.—The sudden arrival of little Miss Hogan created a commotion at the home of her parents this morning. A hurry call brought Mrs. Mary McEwen, whose specialty is the reception of tiny visitors. Mrs. McEwan hurried to Bellevue with the infant and placed it in an incubator. It will live.
- The doctors say that little Miss Hogan awakened several months too soon and although she only weighs three quarters of a pound she is perfectly normal, and likely to thrive and appears satisfied with the little glass oven in which she has taken apartments.

GANTERT GETS THE CONTRACT

The S. Gantert furniture house was awarded the contract for furnishing the big Saengerfaest which takes place July 6, 7, 8. Owing to the large number of chairs needed for this occasion the committee decided to let the contract to the lowest bidder and the large Gantert furniture house offered the lowest bid.

Prof. F. N. Ristey, wife and son of Floodwood, Minn., arrived in the city Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. Ristey's sister, Miss A. L. Becker. On Sunday they left for Hokah, where they will visit for some time with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Becker.

SCARED WOMAN SAVED A FORTUNE FROM ROBBERS

FEAR FOR SAFETY OF SMALL CHILD

Humane Officer Berry to Search for Mrs. Westgard in St. Paul

Seeking the possession of a child of a woman named Westgard, Humane Officer C. H. Berry is expected to depart for St. Paul today or tomorrow. The ground upon which the effort to secure the custody of the child is based is that the mother keeps it amid improper surroundings. Mrs. Westgard is a widow, the sister in law of former patrolman Ashley. Her husband died suddenly under peculiar circumstances; he took medicine from th wrong bottle, the dose proving fatal. He left a little girl, and considerable money.

Some time after the death of Westgard the little girl narrowly escaped death in a similar manner to that in which her father died. She was given medicine out of the wrong bottle, by mistake.

Mrs. Westgard left La Crosse in company with a married man named Brown, and the latter maintained a dual existence in St. Paul. His wife and family are said to have remained in ignorance of the Westgard woman for a long time, but eventually the affair was discovered. A few days ago Mrs. Brown secured a divorce.

In the mean time Brown had secured possession of much of the Westgard woman's share of her husband's estate, and he is now conducting a slot machine business in saloons and cigars stores.

On the death of her father, Mr. Peter Brink, of this city, was made guardian of the property but not of the person of the child. Efforts of the mother to secure any portion of the child's heritage have been successfully resisted by Mr. Brink, but of late he has become advised of the vicious conditions surrounding the child's home life. He intended to apply to the probate court for relief, but learned that owing to the child's absence for more than a year the La Crosse county court has lost jurisdiction.

He wrote the probate court of St. Paul, and was advised to go to that city and appear in person before the court. On legal advice, he decided to send Humane Officer Berry to St. Paul with credentials from the local court. He fears the woman and child now that Brown is free, may disappear. The woman is sole heir to her child's estate.

Mysterious Men at Kuhnau Home

POLICE CAN'T FIND THEM

Exciting Robbery on the North Side After Dusk Last Evening

So frightened that she dared not spend the night in her home, Mrs. Augusta Vent Kuhnau last evening retained her presence of mind and saved from burglars valuable papers involving a small fortune from Germany, left by her husband, who died a few days ago.

While away from her home, 213 Caledonia street, for an hour at least evening robbers picked the lock off the back door and entered. Mrs. Kuhnau returned and found her dog creating a disturbance and entering the house found it had been entered. She went to a bureau drawer where the papers in question were hidden, and found them unmolested. Grasping them up she rushed from the house in her fright, to the home of Frank Wiggert, her next door neighbor. Frank Wiggert went to her home, and while approaching the house was met by three men.

"Skidoo," said the ugliest of the tough looking trio, and young Wiggert fled. One of the ruffians was a negro.

The police were summoned and the neighborhood aroused and within a short time the Kuhnau home was swarming with searchers, but there was no clue to the robbers. A large footprint was found in the yard, but no other clues.

The house had been ransacked and the bureau from which Mrs. Kuhnau had taken the papers in the nick of time was turned topsy-turvy. Nothing of considerable value was taken, and this leads to the belief that the robbers were in search of the papers involving the inheritance. It is even hinted they were put up to the job, by someone who knew of Mrs. Kuhnau's good fortune and absence from home.

The police are scouring the city, but although two negroes were arrested today on suspicion, no clue to the robbers has been discovered.

The robbery occurred at 9:30 last night, and is believed to be connected in some way with the other robberies which have been perpetrated on the north side within the past few days.

"TOAST TO RED FEATHER."

Here's is a toast to the man who smokes RED FEATHER. And knows a good thing when he sees it. May his good resolutions continue forever With health and good fortune so be it.

Let the King wear his purple and point to his crown, Which may fall from his brow when his throne tumbles down, But a bag of RED FEATHER has much more to give Than a kingdom so frail that it cannot long live.

Let the Field Marshal boast of the men he can guide; Of the Infantry Columns and heroes who ride, But the bag of RED FEATHER his standard outranks, Since it's smoked from east to the west ocean banks.

Kingdoms fall to the earth, cities crumble to dust, Men are born but to die, swords are made but to rust, But the bag of RED FEATHER will live on through ages, For it's Union Made and upholds Union Wages.

So a toast to RED FEATHER, most useful of gifts, Since it comforts the workman and his spirits uplifts, And a toast to the man who smokes RED FEATHER— May he continue in Health and Happiness forever. By Willis J. Kessler, Supt. June 22nd, 1906.

MUST GRADE BOULEVARDS AT ONCE

Notice is being issued today by the board of public works in which property owners are notified that all boulevards standing higher than the sidewalks along side of them, must within 10 days be reduced to the grade of the walks.

The reason for this is that the high boulevards prevent drainage. They are also responsible for many tip overs of wagons and sleighs.

The notification adds that, in case the lot owners fail to make the required reduction within the time specified, the city will do so and the expense will be charged to the property owners.

S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD

The demand for S. S. S. has steadily increased since it was first placed on the market until it is now recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers. It has won its way to success because IT CURES DISEASE, and there are few homes where "S. S. S. for the blood" is not a household saying. As the blood is the very life of the body, nourishing and supplying strength to every part, disease in some form is sure to follow when it becomes contaminated. Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Boils, Pimples and the various skin affections are due to an over-acid and impure blood-supply. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Chronic Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood diseases and will continue to grow worse and more dangerous as long as the impurities and poisons which produce them remain in the blood. In all blood disorders S. S. S. has proven itself a perfect remedy, and well earned the right to be called the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes down into the circulation and forces out all poisons, impurities, humors, and unhealthy matter, and makes this life-stream rich, pure and health-sustaining. S. S. S. reaches inherited blood taints and so enriches the circulation that diseases of years standing are permanently cured. It contains no harmful minerals and is nature's real blood purifier. Book on the blood and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

THE UTOPIA OF POLITICS.

A thought that is in every mind, a view that is expressed by every fair and liberal person who loves principle better than party and is not a slave to orthodoxy in politics, is so well exemplified in the St. Paul Daily News that we believe it worth reproduction:

"The spontaneous manifestation of enthusiasm for W. J. Bryan by thousands who have heretofore been his bitter opponents is one of the most remarkable events in the country political history."

"But not a whit less remarkable is the enthusiasm for President Roosevelt manifested by millions outside his own party. 'Strangest of all, the extraordinary condition is not because of any change either in Roosevelt or in Bryan."

"The change is in the people. We are learning to look at the real issues with open eyes and open minds, and no longer blindly and aimlessly to troop along in party ruts at the heels of mere politicians."

This is true, and it is an embarrassing truth to those who wish to be loyal to party, but who cannot help standing for principle. The comparison between Bryan and Roosevelt made above, may be carried with equal accuracy to Tillman and La Follette. These men, and other great and leading characters, are alike in principle, differing only in the name they give their political creed. La Follette is as much a Bryan democrat as Tillman is a Roosevelt republican. They give their beliefs a name, seeking to make the name fit the idea rather than vice versa. They all stand for about the same things, and barring difference as to details and modes of procedure, they are all agreed. The day, the HAPPY day, is indeed coming in America when there will be a new alignment in politics wherein men will not permit an empty party name to forbid hearty co-operation for what is right. Before this can come, we must all wean ourselves from the love of an empty name to which we have blindly answered when the party call was issued. Issues, not parties; principles, not dogmas—these are the coming ruling factors in our public conduct.

ROLLIE GELATT AND JOHNNIE BEGGS.

Mr. Gelatt thinks that it is a condition calling for adverse criticism that prevails in Milwaukee. In that city most of the newspapers and more of the people are somewhat excited because John I. Beggs, the active representative of the Milwaukee traction company which is also the gas and electric lighting, heating and power corporation, has taken legal steps to prevent, if possible, the establishment of a municipal lighting plant. Beggs has enjoined the city from making the necessary expenditure on the ground that the sum puts the city beyond its bonding limit.

Mr. Gelatt finds reason to say that there is no ground for the hysterical action, and assumes that in attempting to prevent the people from doing what they want to do, Mr. Beggs is acting the part of a patriot because he is hindering a breach of the laws of the state.

A heap Mr. Beggs cares for the alleged infraction of the laws of a state the rules for governing human conduct within which he has ignored and insulted in spirit if not in letter these many moons! What Mr. Beggs wants to do in Milwaukee is what Mr. Gelatt would try to do in La Crosse under similar circumstances. Beggs wants to sink the municipal ownership plan in order that he may the longer profit by the extraordinary earnings of his companies. Mr. Gelatt would do the same thing for the same reason, were there to be started here a movement for municipal ownership. Birds of a feather flock together. John I. and Rollie B. are a team, with Beggs able to hold up the short end of the evener on intelligence and resources.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER CAGED TOGETHER.

A western newspaper, unkind to "Bleeding Kansas," and discriminatingly observant, and possessed of a sound and disposing memory, has the following to say of that unhappy state:

"Kansas has had bad luck with her senators. One committed suicide, one resigned years ago to escape expulsion, one was defeated for re-election by evidence that he was buying votes, and still another had his election investigated by a senate committee, which reported that bribery in his interest was proved, but it was not clear that he was a party to the bribery or that enough votes were bought to affect the result. And now there is Burton. For a state that boasts of more churches and schools per capita than any other state, and a smaller percentage of foreign-born than most other states have, Kansas has not established an enviable record in senatorial selections."

To which the still more unkind Henry Watterson adds that, "Perhaps Kansas keeps up her good churches and school average by sending her criminals to the senate, at the nation's expense, instead of the penitentiary, at her own."

In justice to Kansas we are disposed to suggest that her criminals so disposed of are not likely to become lonesome. So long as Platt, alleged bigamist, and Depew, alleged swindler, and Bailey, legislative joker for Standard Oil, and more ad infinitum, are permitted to enjoy the club privileges of the House of Dollars, there is no likelihood that any grafters that Kansas can produce will lack for congenial company, unless it be a fact that in comparison they are such Reuben Glues of legislative thuggery as to feel like the proverbial cow in the parlor when brought into contact with the real silk-tiled and patent-leathered deciples of metropolitan skulduglery.

TAFT WOULD FINISH A HOPELESS SECOND.

A Washington correspondent of a Missouri paper has the following bit of gossip for the readers of his journal:

"If the gossip at the capital can be believed the President is much interested in the Bryan boom. He is reported to have said that Bryan would win the democratic nomination in a walk and that Secretary Taft would be the strongest man the republicans had to oppose him. If Taft wants to run and if in his opinion he would be handicapped by a supreme court appointment the president will defer to Taft's wishes."

If we may venture a prediction, the nomination of Bryan, if he wants it, is no more a "cinch" than is the defeat of Taft, if he gets it. Taft may be a good man, but he cannot hope to acquire the support a Roosevelt or a La Follette would draw. In the language of the prize fighter, he must "go out and get a reputation" before he is eligible to entry in this race. Bryan would make short work of Taft; Bryan might be defeated, and he certainly would be given a game, by Roosevelt or La Follette. The American people are intimately acquainted with Bryan, Roosevelt and La Follette; they don't know Taft. And they are not in a mood to indulge in any experiments.

ated last evening for the annual graduation exercises, when twenty-six graduates of the La Crosse high school were given diplomas. The hall was crowded with guests and concluding the program a dance was given by the junior class.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the high school chorus and orchestra and the musical numbers were followed by the address of Prof. Nathaniel Butler of the University of Chicago, who spoke interestingly on "Some Present Day Ideals in Education."

Prof. Butler closed his address by saying:

"The school is the real life, preparing us for what is to come after. What we do in school, we do in life. Our habits are formed while we are young and follow us throughout our existence unless an earthquake happens to change our course."

"In a way I desire to congratulate the graduates, in an other I want to extend my sympathy. They are entering life's struggle now."

Following the address Earl Tiffany rendered a cello solo, "The

"Y" CAMP AT TREMPPEALEAU BAY

High Water has Temporarily Ruined the Regular Association Camp

LAKE TREMPPEALEAU

Secretary Stafford, of the Y. M. C. A., accompanied by Physical Director Bottsford and twenty young men of the association, left this morning for Trempealeau Bay, where they will go into annual encampment.

Trempealeau Bay was chosen this year because the high water has created havoc with the regular camp. The lawns are a bed of mud, and the shore line is cut out and the water muddy. It was found impossible to get the grounds in shape for the party, and another place was selected. It is said to be doubtful whether the local camp will be used at all this year.

The party that left today will return July 4, in order to spend Independence day in La Crosse.

The weather has been bad, about as bad as it could be the whole week making it decidedly unpleasant for the "sweet girl graduate."

But "time and tide" are no respecters of persons and the only thing to do was to accept the situation with christian fortitude and hope for the best. In spite of the disagreeable weather there were a great many entertainments given in honor of the different visitors.

There were launch rides and picnics, coffees and teas, breakfasts and dinners, ad libitum. The graduating exercises of the high school was the most important event of the week. The annual dancing party which followed was attended by many of the teachers and parents, who seemed to enjoy it quite as much as did the young debutants.

WEDDING.

Miss Mary Shuda and Val. M. Novak were united in marriage Tuesday morning at the church of the Holy Cross. Miss Pauline Wrizinski, cousin of the groom and Miss Josephine Novak were bridesmaids and Mr. Anthony Shuda brother of the bride and Joseph Melzarek were groomsmen. The bride wore a neat white organdie dress and a long tulle veil and carried roses.

Those present from out of town were Miss Magdeline Brill of Stevens Point and Mr. Anthony Zaporowski and daughter Marie and son Frank of Milwaukee.

The following item from the Monroe County Democrat will be read with interest as many in the city are personally acquainted with the bride.

On Tuesday evening, June 19th, was celebrated the wedding of Miss Helen Frances Dodge the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus S. Dodge to Dr. Vernon W. Styles. Among the guests from abroad were Mrs. E. W. Hillis, a sister of the groom from Chicago, Mrs. Bessie Johnson and daughter of Columbus, Mrs. John Gerletti of Bangor, Mrs. John Palmer Mrs. N. P. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lees and Miss Helen Burton of La Crosse, Mr. Asa Goodyear and Mr. Miles Goodyear of Tomah, Mrs. Earl M. Rogers of Viroqua, Mrs. E. B. The bride is one of Sparta's most gracious women and has a host of friends who wish her many years of happiness.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

There was a pretty birthday party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Tracy in honor of the twelfth birthday of their daughter, Hertha. An original poem dedicated to the guest of honor was read and the author complimented. Jokes and toasts were other features of the occasion which all enjoyed. The guests were Mesdames Peck, D. G. Whyte, Levi Withee, Charles Elmore, E. A. Gatterdam, F. J. Toland, Charles Noble, the Misses Elmore and Wheeler.

VOLUME III NUMBER 25

LA CROSSE, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 1906

PRICE TWO CENTS

MAGNIFICENT EXHIBIT OF ART

J. W. Young, Chicago Connoisseur
Places Fine Work on View

A few years ago there was so little interest in art matters that for any one to have brought to La Crosse a collection of important pictures would have been sheer folly. But that our people are appreciative of good paintings is proven by the fact that J. W. Young, the Chicago art connoisseur and collector, considers it worth while to bring to the Stoddard a collection of paintings worth over $50,000. In a talk with a representative of the Tribune Mr. Young says that there has been a great interest taken in art matters throughout the central west lately. The people have been prosperous and have built themselves beautiful homes and beginning to realize the beauty and good in fine paintings in the home, and that the chromo of our fathers may have looked well enough in a room with a floor covered with rag carpets. But that the same sort of makeshift for art hardly goes well with a thousand dollar oriental rug on the floor.

One western man who builds a good home thinks there is nothing too good of that home and is not content without a good library and good music in that home. And he wants good art too. He may make some mistakes in selecting his first pictures, but in many of our western cities there are art associations who bring to their city once a year important public exhibitions of good pictures from which a good picture is usually bought for a permanent collection. And you would be surprised to hear that the people take nearly as much interest in an affair of this kind as they do in their local baseball team when it wins. The more our people know about art the more they realize that we have as good painters here in America as anywhere in the world.

The fashionable art dealer in our large cities usually tries to persuade picture buyers that European pictures are the only art worth while, because they can buy them cheap and sell them at very large profits.

But our patrons are becoming more and more discriminating and that it is best to buy pictures that grow more beautiful as you get more acquainted with them. Among the pictures that Mr. Young has at the Stoddard is sunset by Geo. Inness, the most famous of all the American artists; also paintings by Henry W. Ranger, H. Bolton Jones, Wm. H. Howe, Carleton, Wiggins J. E. Bundy, Will C. Fidler, Claude Raguet Hirst, Eugenia F. Glaman and many other well known American painters whose works are known, not only in this country, but whose works have won medals and honors in the great exhibitions of Europe like the Paris salon and Royal Academy of London. Side by side with these are paintings by famous Dutch, French, English and Italian artists, giving the visitor a chance to compare American and European art.

We feel it would be a splendid thing for some of our social leaders to organize an art association so that La Crosse might have an annual art exhibition of good works of art and gladly offer the columns of the Tribune for suggestions along this line.

ANOTHER CHURCH
ON NORTH SIDE
ROBBED

It has been discovered that the north side churches are still entered during the night and burned matches and other evidences of robbers found.

At the Presbyterian church the birthday box was broken open last evening and about a dollar secured.

The doors were not broken, but the locks were picked, as they were the evening the other churches were entered.

The home of Mrs. Kuhnau was entered last evening in the same way and it is suggested that a gang of thieves are in hiding in the city.

TELLS ON STAND HE IS FATHER OF DOWIE

CHICAGO, June 22.—John Murray Dowie, father of John Alexander, on the stand has refuted the testimony of the "apostle" that Murray was not his father. The senior Dowie's testimony will be used by the Voliva faction to prove the "apostle's" insanity.

OPEN UNTIL NOON
DESPITE PROTEST

The clothing, shoe and hardware merchants have decided to open their stores until noon on July 4th, while many of the large merchants in other lines will close for the entire day. It is not anticipated that the clerks' union will object to this action.

VAN AUKEN RECEIVER FOR GILBERTSON

C. S. Van Auker has been appointed temporary receiver for the business of Louis Gilbertson the bankrupt S. Court Commissioner Prentiss at the request of Mr. Gilbertson's creditors. After giving a $10,000 bond Mr. Van Auker was given complete control of the stock as well as the $400 deposited in one of the local banks. There are forty creditors with bills from $90 to $800.

BUILD WEATHER
BUREAU STATION

Secretary Ried of the board of trade yesterday received a telegram from Congressman Esch informing him that a weather bureau inspector was on his way to this city for the purpose of selecting a site and arranging details for the construction of a $15,000 weather bureau building. The building will be two stories high and can be accommodated on a sixty foot lot. While small it will be a pretty structure architecturally. A meeting of several business men was held at the La Crosse club yesterday and several sites were taken under advisement to be presented to the inspector when he arrives, which will be within a couple of days.

WED TUESEAY

Miss Ida Koch and Charles Fuller will be united in marriage at the home of the bride at 415 Caledonia street Thursday.

Mr. Fuller is a popular young druggist of Reedsburg and Miss Koch is well known on the north side where she has a large circle of friends. Her brother William, who has been at Davenport, Ia., is in the city to attend the wedding.

MARRIED THOUGH
SHE WAS ILL

Philadelphia, June 23.—Buoyed up with the determination that she should be married on the day set, Miss Bessie R. Swayne, of this city, was wedded to Heber M. Lamon, a prominent real estate man of Philadelphia. Propped up with pillows, the young woman, who is dangerously ill with typhoid fever, slowly whispered the wedding vows, and with the help of Rev. Edgar Cope, who officiated, raised her hand sufficiently to have the ring placed on her finger.

The effort was too much for the patient, and she sank back on her bed, sick, but happy. Although her condition is critical, the physicians think now that the ordeal is over. Mrs. Lamon's recovery is but a matter of a few weeks.

Miss Ethel Burnham returned the first of the week from Madison where she has been attending the university.

Games for Today.

Same as today.

La Crosse simply made Green Bay gasp for breath yesterday, shutting out the easterners and piling up twelve runs on 14 hits. Charles, the Indian pitcher for the visitors, was pounded all over the field.

Besides slugging the ball, La Crosse played an errorless game, thereby preventing Green Bay scoring on their five hits off Hawley.

Hawley seemed in old National league trim, and pitched a magnificent game. The Green Bay batters had no show against him and even the grand stand, too frequently inclined to criticize the local manager, was enthusiastic at his splendid work. Killian held Hawley well, as Killian holds 'em all.

Today La Crosse opens the series with Wausau, and provided good weather permits all games to be played, expects to get at least three out of the series of four. La Crosse is now in the lead in average and expects to hold her own for the remainder of the season.

However, the Wausau team is now regarded as one of the very strongest in the league, since the "strengthening up" and La Crosse may find it a hard pull.

Yesterday's score by innings:

R.H.E.
La Crosse	3 0 2 0 2 2 0 3 *—12 14 0
Green Bay	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 8
Batteries:	Hawley and Killian; Charles and Lenon.

Wausau 3, Freeport 1.

WAUSAU, Wis., June 23.—The effective work of Wausau in the seventh inning resulted in victory for the Wisconsin men, the score being 3 to 1. Score:

Freeport	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 6 0
Wausau	0 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0—3 8 0
Batteries:	Evans and Erickson; Long and Karnell.

Eau Claire 8, Oshkosh 2.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 23.—After two days of rain Oshkosh and Eau Claire played a game yesterday afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock because of the counter attraction of Hagenbeck's circus. The grounds were deep in mud. Score:

Oshkosh	0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—2 4 3
Eau Claire	1 0 4 3 0 0 0 0 0—8 12 5
Batteries:	Clark, Garlick and Moore; Malone and Assmussen.

Mrs. L. H. Peck who has been spending the past ten days visiting old friends in the city will return to her home at Chicago tomorrow noon.

Now gentle reader figure out just how much return, financially, you get, or the city, from a purchase of an article made in another city.

Every dollar spent in the city means that it remains in circulation in the city and benefits many, while the dollar that goes for out of the city merchandise means that much, less a small percentage for a competitive city.

ADAM E. FORSCHLER, DISTRIBUTOR.

Everyone has a character and a reputation. Unless the public is misled as to the sort of man or woman you are, your reputation depends upon your character.

Did you ever stop to think that others can read your character in what you wear? It is true, as Polonius said, that "the apparel oft proclaims the man." It is true of your clothing and it is particularly true of your jewelry. Many or large stones bespeak sumptuousness; plain, yet costly gems indicate daintiness; assortment of jewels points to love of the spectacular. It is not the size or the expensiveness of the jewels you wear that tells your character; it is their Genuineness. He who wears the plainest of buttons, all selected from the best makers, need not fear that his jewelry will tell bad tales about him. People see the genuine in his cuffs and wrist bands and in his scarf, and on his finger, and they feel that The Man himself is not a counterfeit. On the other hand, a gaudy imitation in stud or button or ring, or an imperfect specimen of the real jewel, marks a man or woman as weak in character. He who wears imitations, even though fooled by those who make a business of selling bogus or inferior goods, is given a reputation for instability and love of cheap display.

In this sort of character portrayal there is a sequence. First the mining of the genuine gold and gems; next the cutting and manufacture of the genuine jewelry by a reputable manufacturer; next the display and sale of the genuine jewelry by a reputable merchant. Purchasers of jewelry, to protect themselves, must know that this has been the origin and history of the things they buy.

In La Crosse, there is one guarantee that the goods will be right. Look on the box for the name of ROSE The Jeweler.

TRADE HEAVY

New York, June 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trades says: Relief from drought in many important farming sections restored prospects of bountiful harvests, and the business of the nation has maintained a volume that is exceptionally heavy for the season. Some evidences of conservatism regarding production beyond assured demands are noted, but in many of the leading industries contracts have been placed for the entire output during the balance of the year, while steel mills are booked well into 1907.

One of the best features of the week was the settlement of coal mining troubles in Ohio. Activity in real estate and building operations is fully maintained, and the movement of lumber and materials is very heavy. Winter wheat harvesting has begun, the usual complaint regarding the scarcity of labor being frequently heard.

Failures this week numbered 185 in the United States, against 195 last year, and 20 in Canada, compared with 25 a year ago.

Assassination in Texas.

Grimes, O. T., June 23.—John Puryear and Earl Seeds were assassinated near La Mesa, Tex., by three men. Puryear and Seeds went to a water tank with horses and were fired on from ambush. Three suspects were arrested. A crowd demanded the prisoners be taken from the county jail and lynched. Puryear had trouble with three of his neighbors a year ago and since then there has been a feud.

Michigan Man Appointed.

Washington, June 23.—Dr. Cressy L. Wilbur, of Michigan, has been appointed chief statistician for vital statistics in the census bureau, vice William A. King, deceased. Dr. Wilbur was expert special agent in the same bureau.

King Haakon presented Special Ambassador Graves and Mrs. Graves with silver medals struck in honor of the coronation.

At the state dinner at the palace at night there were 350 guests, including all the visiting princes and princesses and members of the special embassies and legations. Premier Michelsen toasted King Haakon, who responded and toasted Norway. Crowds outside the palace cheered the arrival and departure of the princes and special embassies.

DITCH ON ISLAND IS OPENED

Honolulu, June 23.—The Kohala ditch, the largest irrigation enterprise here, has been opened with ceremonies in which Secretary Atkinson, lately acting governor, took part. The ditch is fourteen miles long, of which nine is mountain tunneling. It will be twenty-one miles long eventually and will supply 70,000,000 gallons of water a day to numerous plantations and to large areas which are uncultivated because of lack of water. The ditch has cost $500,000.

In his address at the opening Secretary Atkinson quoted a letter from President Roosevelt in which the latter pledges his support to efforts to obtain immigrants who will settle the lands of Hawaii. In his letter, which was addressed to Atkinson while the latter was acting governor, the president says that he will do all in his power to assist in the matter.

THE MEN BEHIND THE GUNS.

Ships and instruments do not constitute the navy. It is the man behind the gun whose demand is the keenest and whose supply is not encouraging. —Augusta (Ga.) Herald.

The secretary of the navy has repeatedly called attention to the meager force the navy has to depend upon to man the ships and urged that the service be made more attractive by increasing the pay and privileges of enlisted men. At present we need seamen more than we need ships. —Camden (N. J.) Post-Telegram.

BE A GOOD LISTENER.

A Charm Which Women Would Do Well to Cultivate.

The wise woman is a good listener as well as a good conversationalist. It is much more of an art to draw out the best thoughts of other people than it is to converse well oneself. One often meets intelligent persons who never enter a room full of people without monopolizing the conversation. Their facility for useless chatter is unlimited, and their conversation is liberally interspersed with the pronoun I.

Well bred people have a wholesome dislike of talking about themselves. One never knows how much they know or what wonderful sights they have seen unless some circumstance occurs to bring it out. It is left for the person of few ideas and narrow vision to keep up a ceaseless chatter. It is the occasional traveler who seeks to impress upon her friends the fact that she has seen something of the world. She never misses a chance of speaking about it. While this is not an unpardonable fault, it is a disagreeable one, which sometimes causes the inveterate talker to be spoken of in terms anything but complimentary.

THE HOME DOCTOR.

Ingrowing toe nails should be scraped thin in the center of the nail and then cut there and at the corners. Persons who have irritability of the heart should not drink hot water. Hot water will cause palpitation in such cases.

Who would avoid humiliation let him practice the art of silence.

More strength comes from believing one thing than from doubting a thousand.

Whoever believes there is a difference between a lie and the truth has a creed.

Alcohol

1 glass of whiskey = 15 glasses of beer

Scientific Analysis

Positively affirms that the alcohol contained in 15 glasses of our beer scarcely equals that contained in one average glass of ardent spirits. Hence a bottle of ripe malt beer, when brewed from malted barley and Bohemian hops like

Gund's Peerless Beer

Is really a wholesome and natural temperance drink (containing only 3 1/4 percent of alcohol), that promotes digestion and enriches the blood. It is a thousand times better for the human stomach and nerves than dyspepsia creating concoctions like coffee and pink tea. Dr. Pasteur calls it "a veritable food product," and Dr. Wm. L. Beebe, Surgeon for Jas. J. Hill's Great Northern Railway System, says: "Beer is surely a food, by reason of its ingredients, and its moderate use is not at all injurious to the health of adult persons." Peerless has attained its commanding superiority because it has been brewed for over 50 years by the "Gund Natural Process," and is bottled only at the brewery. The best clubs, cafes and hotels keep it constantly. Better phone us today and have a case delivered to your home.

STREAM OF SCHOOL BOYS SEEKING EMPLOYMENT

Today was Judge Brindley's busy day, county court being the scene of an endless procession of boys seeking "factory permits" in which youths below the legal age are permitted to engage in certain kinds of labor under conditions provided by law.

Coming vacation is the cause of the rush of applications. The number has run from four to a dozen during the last fortnight, today being the largest of all. In all more than 200 applications have been entered.

THEATRE FRONT IS PROGRESSING

Work on the La Crosse theatre is progressing rapidly and the white brick front is being constructed with rapidity. It is expected that the remodeled building will be under roof by August 1st, and that the entire interior will be ready for the opening of the theatrical season, Sept. 1.

IT REQUIRES TWO HOURS UNDER CHLOROFORM TO RESTORE HIS THUMB

While running around the corner of the house of John Manke, of 914 Avon street, Carl Swenson, aged 10, slipped and fell, dislocating the thumb of his right hand.

He was taken into Dr. Leuck's office and placed under the influence of chloroform. Dr. Leuck with the assistance of two other men succeeded in pulling the injured member back in place after about two hours' work.

The injured boy will not be able to use his right hand for three or four weeks.

LITTLE GIRL IS HIT BY "APPLEPIN" STICK; HURT

Little Catherine Sieger daughter of Mrs. T. Allen the Caledonia street tailor met with a painful accident yesterday which might have proved serious.

A number of boys were in her yard and were playing "apple pin." One of them had struck at the stick when a piece of broom handle struck the little girl over the temple rendering her unconscious and cutting an ugly gash to the bone near her eye.

Her sister at once carried her into the house and Mrs. Allen and a doctor were summoned. Miss Sieger fainted during the excitement. The little girl is getting along nicely today.

THE BEST FRIENDS OF PE-RU-NA ARE THE MOTHERS AND CHILDREN

Pe-ru-na Should Be Kept In Every Household

Where There Are Little Children.

Pe-ru-na should be kept in the house all the time. Don't wait until the child is sick, then send to a drug store. But, have Pe-ru-na on hand—accept no substitute.

Children are especially liable to acute catarrh. Indeed, most of the affections of childhood are catarrh.

All forms of sore throat, quinsy, croup, hoarseness, laryngitis, etc., are but different phases of catarrh.

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Pe-ru-na has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Pe-ru-na, if taken according to printed directions, is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. It does not produce temporary results, but it is permanent in its effect.

It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh.

Mrs. F. Brockman, 813 Meade street, Appleton, Wis., writes: "I have never had a return of the catarrh, which had made me so miserable and unhappy before I began taking Pe-ru-na. I would not be without it in the house, now. I have a baby boy, two years old, to whom I give Pe-ru-na for a cold, and my husband also takes Pe-ru-na. I thank you and wish you well."—Mrs. F. Brockman.

No Doctor Required.

Mr. Edward Otto, 927 De Soto street, St. Paul, Minn., writes:

"I cannot say enough for Pe-ru-na. It has done great work in my family, especially for my oldest boy. We had doctored with three or four different doctors and they did not seem to do him any good.

"We gave up hopes of cure, and so did they, but we pulled him through on Pe-ru-na.

"We had several doctors and they said they could do no more for him, so we tried Pe-ru-na as a last resort, and that did the work. Since then we keep it in the house all the time, and no doctor is required."—Edward Otto.

There are a multitude of homes where Pe-ru-na has been used off and on for twenty years.

Such a thing could not be possible if Pe-ru-na contained any narcotics.

The Benefit Which the Children of the United States Have Received From Pe-ru-na Can Never Be Put Into Words.

The chronic ailments it has prevented, the suffering it has mitigated, will never be fully recorded.

But at least this much can be said that the coming generation owes a great debt to Pe-ru-na, for it is in the tender years of youth that slight ailments are liable to develop into lasting disease, thus blasting the whole career of the individual.

The mothers who are bringing up their children to-day to believe in Pe-ru-na are speaking from their experience.

These children brought up to believe in Pe-ru-na from the start, will, when they become heads of families themselves, use Pe-ru-na with unquestioning faith.

A Child's Life Saved.

Mr. G. H. Farmer, New Martinsville, W. Va., writes:

"Our little son, Harry, is well and healthy now and we think if we do as you directed us, he will keep his health and grow strong.

"We know that our little son's life was saved by your wonderful medicine, Pe-ru-na, and we shall always praise Pe-ru-na and use it in our family when needed.

"Should we have any more catarrhal trouble in our family, we shall always write to you for treatment."

RAIN CHECKS GOOD FOR 5 INNINGS

Discussing the dissatisfaction expressed by a large number of people over the declaration of the baseball association to accept the rain checks offered following a 4-inning game, Secretary McDonough said today that, in extending the limit at which rain checks will be taken, the local association is violating a rule of the national association of which it is a member, and is likely to be reprimanded and directed to conform to the rule, and to be fined for past failure to do so.

The check will be accepted in the future for anything up to five innings. Mr. McDonough says this gives La Crosse fans two innings the best of it over every other club in the country. He says that, had the association desired to do so, the three-inning game of Tuesday could have been carried on for another inning, the association thereby retaining the receipts. The secretary calls attention to the fact that the local club must pay a heavy forfeit every time rain prevents a game, $35 being guaranteed the visitors in each case. He says the error made was not in declining to accept the check, but in failing to notify the public of the rules governing them at the opening of the season and before any misunderstanding arose. The management hopes that the prompt adoption of the most liberal rules in use anywhere will be appreciated, and regrets the fact that many of those who complained may have destroyed their checks.

"SELDOM SEEN" WAS NOT GUILTY

Suspicious that "Seldom Seen," the unique criminal who developed into a fire bug, attempted to burn the village of Houston, Minn., about two weeks ago, succeeding in destroying two buildings for the firing of which he is now awaiting trial in Caledonia on a charge of arson, was instrumental in the incendiary destruction of and robbery of the postoffice at La Crosse about May 14th, Postmaster

Everett Webster of that village, visited police detectives here yesterday.

An investigation of the doings of Seldom Seen led to the conclusion that the Houston criminal has nothing to do with the La Crosse affair. The date of issue of the certificate of deposit which he carried on a Wausau bank, indicate that Seldom Seen was in Wausau on the date of the La Crosse fire.

DEED AND MONEY IN THE BANK

The deeds of the normal site have been completed and approved, and they are now in the safety vault of the National Bank of La Crosse. The $15,000 voted by the city is also deposited in The National, the balance of the money to pay the $24,000 being still in the state treasury. The deeds and the city funds will remain in the National bank until the state appropriation for the normal building is finally voted, when the transfer to the state will be made.

A Poem for Today

WAITING

By John Burroughs

JOHN BURROUGHS, one of the most popular of living American authors, was born in Delaware county, N. Y., on April 3, 1837, and now lives at West Park on the Hudson, where he cultivates a farm, devoting his leisure and winters to literature. After receiving an academic education he taught school and worked as a treasury clerk and national bank examiner. Since 1874 Mr. Burroughs has resided on his farm. Most of his popularity is based on his nature writings. He possesses the faculty of imbuing his reader with his own "love of nature in her visible forms."

SERENE, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind or tide or sea.
I have no more 'gainst time or fate.

For, lo, my own shall come to me!
I stay my haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?

I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.

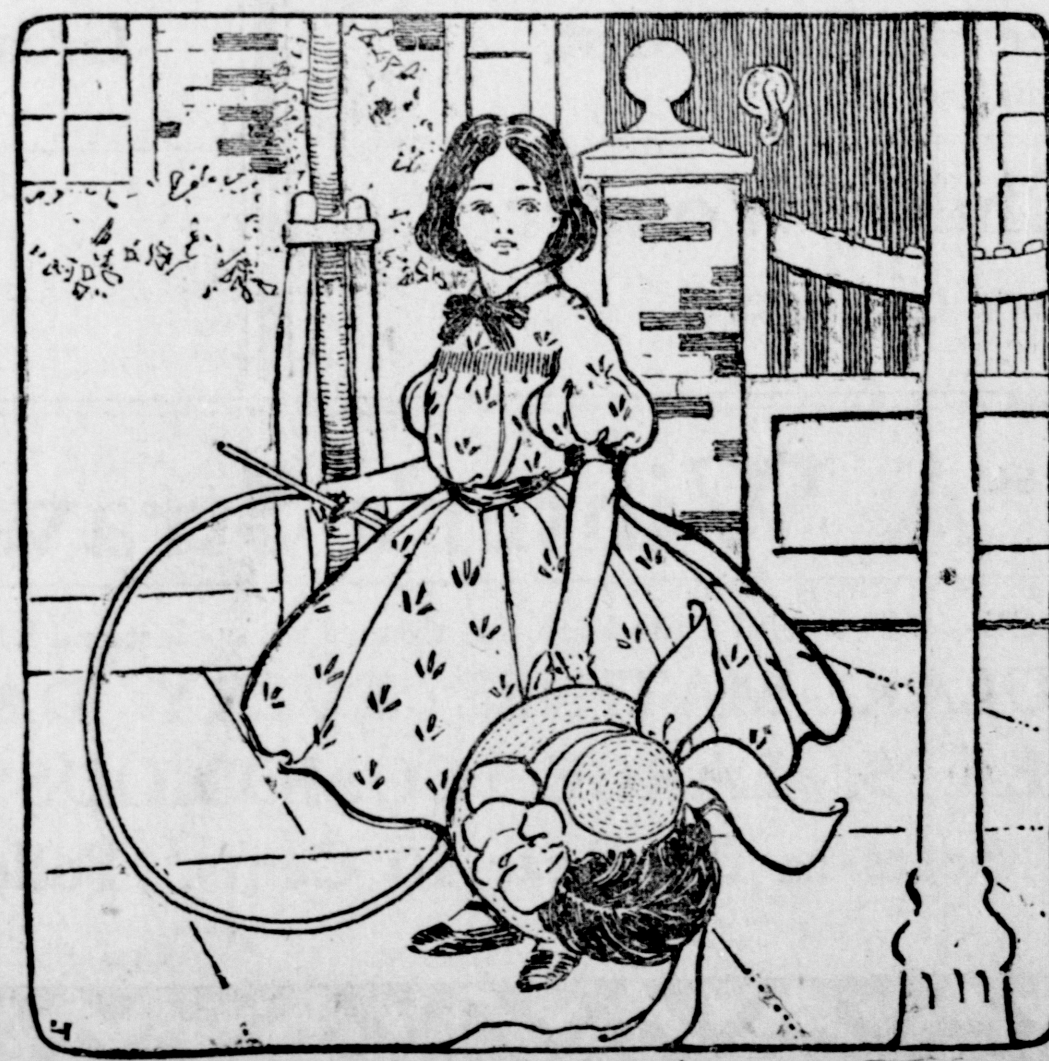

Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it has sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.

The waters know their own and draw
The brook that springs in yonder height;
So flows the good with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delight.

The stars come nightly to the sky,
The tidal wave unto the sea,
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

HOOPLE TIME HAS COME AGAIN.

When Sickness Comes to the Little Ones

It Is the Mother Who Chiefly Suffers.

She suffers even more than the child who happens to be sick. Her sympathy is deeper than that of any other member of the family.

The mother looks forward with dread to the torrid heat of summer, thinking of her children and the many liabilities to disease that are before them.

Spring and summer are sure to bring ailments, especially among the little folks.

It does not take a mother very long to discover that Pe-ru-na is the best friend she has in time of illness among the children.

A Multitude of Mothers

Have discovered that Pe-ru-na is their stand-by, and that in many of the ailments of spring and summer to which the children are subjected, Pe-ru-na is the remedy that will generally quickly relieve.

Whether it is spring fever or stomach derangement, whether it is indigestion or bowel disease, a catarrhal congestion of the mucous surfaces is the cause.

Pe-ru-na quickly relieves this condition of the mucous membranes. Its operation is prompt, the children do not dislike to take the medicine, it has no deleterious effects in any part of the body.

It simply removes the cause of the disagreeable symptoms and restores the health.

Every mother who has not tried Pe-ru-na in her family should familiarize herself with Dr. Hartman's booklet, The Ills of Life. This booklet should be in every family. It gives most valuable advice as to the use of Pe-ru-na for the various catarrhal diseases so general to-day.

Pe-ru-na is a household remedy for all catarrhal ailments of winter and summer, acute or chronic.

The mothers all over the United States are the best friends that Pe-ru-na has.

The Mothers Hold Pe-ru-na in High Esteem.

Not only because it has cured them of their various ailments, but because it promptly relieves the children from the throes and grasp of catarrhal diseases.

We have in our files many testimonials from mothers whose children have been cured by Pe-ru-na. However, the large majority of mothers who use Pe-ru-na, we never hear from.

But we do hear from a great number of mothers who are so overjoyed at some special good they have received from Pe-ru-na that they cannot restrain their enthusiasm. They are anxious to share these benefits with other mothers.

FEMININE FANCIES FOR OUR LADY READERS

FORECAST OF FASHION.

The Ubiquitous Short Brimmed Sailor—Braid Trimmings.

The short brimmed sailor is to be seen everywhere and is usually trimmed with a bow in front and a huge one at the back under the brim. Striped ribbon adorns many of these sailor shapes.

Braid appears in conventional designs or in plain multiplied rows upon almost all of the spring and summer gowns whether the material be lawn, silk cloth or mohair. A stunning frock of white mohair is braided as freely as a bandmaster's uniform with quantities of white soutache relieved with touches of wide gold braid and dull brass buttons.

There are any number of short, jaunty jackets with half fitted backs and fronts and other styles plaited to the waist, where short flaring basques are set on.

In Paris long chambray gloves for morning wear are the correct thing.

The frock in the sketch is evolved from a delicate tone of mignonette ninon de soie. A piping of white silk outlines the ruchings on the shirred Spanish flounce and trims the bloused waist. The yoke is formed of triangular pieces of fine drawn linen.

VOGUE VAGARIES.

Dog Collars Worn With Lingerie Waists—Pongee Everyday Gowns.

Dog collars of oxidized or fire gilt links set with small precious or semi-precious stones are now worn to support the delicate lace or embroidery collars on thin waists. It is predicted that this summer they will be more popular than the big, fat beads which have encircled the necks of lingerie waists for the last two or three seasons.

Soft finished taffetas and India silk will be used again for shirt waist dresses, with collars and cuffs of lawn to give freshness at the neck and wrist. Pongees are liked for practical everyday gowns. This material in the natural color cleans well and in all shades is cool and serviceable. It sheds the dust, thereby making a perfect traveling dress.

The Calot sisters, who are among the best known Parisian modistes, inlist that the full skirt is perfectly adapted to all figures. When properly cut, they say, it makes the stout woman look more slender and shows to the best advantage on the figure of a thin woman.

The chataleine bracelet, from which dangles a pretty vanity case and other useful trinkets, is one of the vagaries of the moment. New bracelets almost if not quite an inch in width display large stones or panels or plaques of smaller stones, connected by very open links in diamonds or with heavy gold arabesques.

The shirt waist illustrated is of madras laid in rather small box plaits. The sleeves are box plaited into the armholes and again at the wrists, where they form deep cuffs. The smart, low turn back collar and cuffs are of eyelet embroidery.

FASHION MATTERS.

Novel Trimmings For Lingerie Blouses and Gowns—Jewelry Fads.

Irish lace comes by the yard in designs of large white roses that can be cut apart, making charming insets for lingerie blouses.

A feature of the linen gowns and suits are embroidered panels. These may be purchased separately, so that the managing woman may obtain a robe effect at comparatively small cost. A set of panels for waist and skirt elaborately embroidered is $11. Bracelets are very fashionable worn with the short sleeves and over long mousquetaire gloves. A handsome bracelet of gold is in filigree work with rose finish. It is of the old fashioned shape that widens at the back.

For mourning is a beautiful chain of black jade beads made in an unusually artistic design. These chains are to be found in shops that carry bead-work.

There's a new clasp of gold to hold the corset cover sleeve and the under-vest sleeve together.

The daintiest neck furnishings are the sheer, little French cantrick ties, the bow ends embroidered in color.

A narrow white suede belt with strips of embossed Japanese leather through the middle is new.

A very neat and novel riding boot is of brown leather, cut very high, and has caps of suede that fit over the knees and buckle firmly with small straps.

A patch pocket adorns the front of the smart tailored blouse, and to be quite up to date the monogram is worked on the flap.

The corselet princess gown illustrated is of striped green and white radium silk. The panel front is carried up to form the waist bretelles. Straps of silk cut vertically trim both bodice and skirt.

SUMMER GOWNS.

Smart Little Tub Frocks and How to Make Them—Trimmings.

Every woman is now making up the half dozen little gowns of cotton that later in the season will be so comfortable to wear. These are being fashioned from dainty flowered dimities, embroidered mulls and printed organdies that are blossoming on every shop counter.

Madras, pique and linen are among the materials used for morning gowns that have many followers. These fabrics are at their best when made into shirt waist and tailored suits that depend for smartness upon stitched bands and the skillful use of pearl buttons.

Morning dresses of the tub variety differ from afternoon gowns only in the length of skirts, which for informal frocks to be really smart must clear the ground from two to three inches.

Cotton voile is a delightful stuff. Pink voile with a dotted design copied from a radium silk pattern is a pretty material when made up into a short length princess dress with platings of pink ribbon banding the hem and trimming the short sleeves. The gumpie is of white mull. In gowns of white embroidered swiss or of self plaided muslin, which material is very smart, little is needed in the way of trimming. Clusters of tucks usually form the best adornment with the addition of a dainty Dresden or colored silk girdle. Ribbon bows showing Dresden flower designs are used extensively upon summer gowns, being placed upon the headings of the skirt flounces used for sashes and girdles or for trimming lace yokes, topping puffy little sleeves and for suspenders.

The small tot's dress in the picture is of all over eyelet embroidery cut in the French fashion. The Dutch neck and elbow sleeves are cool and pretty.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Miss Helen Gould intends to spend the summer in Europe. It will be her first trip abroad in many years.

Dr. Esther B. Van Bemen has been appointed holder of the Carnegie fellowship of classical research work for a year in the American School for Classical Studies in Rome.

Miss Mary Graham of Norwich, Conn., celebrated her one hundred and third birthday recently. She was born in the north of Ireland and came to this country when she was thirty years old.

Frau Eggert-Smidt, a noted German woman and member of Der Abstinente

Frauerbunde, is to visit this country in August and lecture in September and October on the temperance movement in Germany.

Mrs. Philip Snowden, wife and secretary of the Labor member of the British parliament for Blackburn, is almost as eloquent a speaker as her husband, whose passionate zeal for progressive democracy she fully shares.

The council of the faculty of sciences of the University of Paris has confirmed the initiative of the minister of public instruction in appointing Mme. Curie to the chair of the university occupied by her husband. This is the first time a woman has occupied this high position.

Lady Lytton, wife of the novelist Bulwer Lytton, wrote of the widow who became the wife of Lord Beaconsfield: "My mother went to call upon Mrs. Wyndham Lewis to condole with her upon the death of her husband. She had no sooner entered the room than the widow came forth all smiles and eagerness. 'Congratulations, my dear,' she said. 'Disraeli has proposed.'"

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Attractive Black and White Costumes—The Alice Bow Smart.

A charming suit seen in a well known shop noted for its high class materials is a broken check containing certain rather vivid color notes, yet the general effect is soft and dainty. The ground is a creamy white and the check produced not by definite, continuous lines, but by little dashes or flecks in a brown so dark that save for the closest examination it appeared black. With this deep brown are tiny flecks of apricot and still lighter touches of soft old blue. The whole effect gives an impression of coolness and lightness. For a tailored street costume this check is stunning trimmed with a touch of any one of the predominating colors.

White serge or panama with a black line stripe is used for some of the smartest morning frocks of the tailored type. A small black velvet collar, cuffs and buttons are added to many of these costumes.

White panama gowns are more to the fore than ever and the best models are without fussylaboration, with just a touch here and there to give cachet.

A large tulle bow worn on each shoulder of an evening frock fastened by jeweled pins is called the Alice bow and is named for Mrs. Longworth.

The dainty ethereal whisp of tulle such as girls wore a year or so ago has again been adopted by those who find it becoming.

The child's hat seen in the cut is of leghorn. A wreath of white roses put closely together without foliage encircles the crown. The underbrim is half faced with double white chiffon. The wide satin strings are attached with rosettes.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Delicious Potato Salad.

A delicious potato salad: Chop very fine indeed half a small onion and half a green pepper pod. Cut six boiled potatoes into cubes less than half an inch in diameter. Mix the onion, pepper and potato together with five or six tablespoonfuls of oil. Add a teaspoonful of salt and a little paprika. Add vinegar in whatever proportion is liked. Rub the salad bowl with a split clove of garlic; put in the salad, shaping fit firmly into a mound. Cover with a smooth mayonnaise. With lines of capers or sliced olives divide the mound into six sections. Fill in these sections with finely chopped hard boiled eggs, using both whites and yolks, and with chopped boiled beets. Decorate the sections in contrasting colors. Set a tuft of lettuce hearts in the top and decorate the edges with tiny gherkins cut in the thinnest of slices and spread out fan fashion.

Picture Frames.

The most effective picture frames, except when oil paintings are in question, match the woodwork of the room in which they hang. Dull gold frames, very unobtrusive, are liked when the woodwork happens to be white enamel. At all events, it is no longer permissible to crowd all sorts of frames in one room. A uniformity of some sort is decidedly indicated.

Salve for the Emperor

New York, June 23.—To prove to the German emperor that there is no personal animosity in the criticism of his portrait presented recently to the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences and hung in the Eastern Park museum, trustees of the institute have started a movement to raise by popular subscription a large sum with which to pay for a painting of President Roosevelt, to be sent to the emperor on behalf of the citizens of Brooklyn.

Franklin W. Hooper, director of the institute, who has characterized the emperor's portrait as "worthless and a white elephant," announced the movement. Professor Hooper said he was confident that the plan would be carried out and that the best artist in this country would be asked to paint the president.

Bitter feeling has resulted from the emperor's presentation to the Brooklyn Institute of the portrait of himself. Professor Hooper's criticism was made in a letter in which he criticized the portrait because it was a copy of the Corcoran picture and of "no value as a work of art."

How to Kill Canada Thistle.

Kenosha, Wis., June 23.—According to the showing of extensive experiments made under the supervision of the agricultural department of the University of Wisconsin, sulphate of iron sprinkled over the growing crops of farms in this vicinity will prove to be the farmer's salvation from the destructive effects of the Canada thistle and wild mustard. The importation of a spraying machine from Germany has made it possible to spray an acre of land at a net cost of 50 cents.

Three Children Burn to Death.

Cincinnati, June 23.—Three children of Charles Wuesthorm, of Harrison, O., were burned to death by the explosion of a gasoline stove at their home. While playing on the floor they pulled the stove over on them. The tank burst and the gasoline spread over the floor and ignited, covering the children with a mass of flames.

How Sarah Met the Fairies

ONE night long after teatime Sarah stole into the garden. It was so dark that she could not find her way about and stumbled many times before reaching the rose garden.

She hid behind the tallest lilies and kept very quiet.

She had heard that the fairies played in the garden at night, but that they never came out if any boys and girls were there.

She waited so long that she grew both tired and sleepy. For some time there was not a sound except the crickets. Then there was the faintest sort of a crunch on the garden path, and two little fairies, with a firefly on either side, appeared.

They were walking arm in arm, talking and laughing merrily. As they drew near to Sarah they paused.

"Why not sit here on the lily leaves?" asked the fairy in pink.

"Oh, yes," answered the fairy in blue. "Then you can tell me before the others come."

"Of course," Sarah heard the fairy in pink say, "you promise not to tell. It's a secret."

"Oh, no, I won't tell," answered the fairy in blue. "I love secrets."

The fairy in pink leaned forward. She spoke in such a low voice that "It is a very serious thing, your majesty," she said. The queen asked, "How shall we punish her?"

The godmother looked at Sarah. "Since she likes to use her ears to overhear secrets not meant for her, why not turn her into a cup and saucer with only one ear?"

"What about her red hair ribbon?" she asked.

"That will make a band for the saucer," answered the godmother, waving her wand.

Sarah did not want to be made into a cup and saucer. She put her hands over her ears to save them when the godmother touched her with her magic wand.

"For being a whisper girl Sarah shall be a cup and saucer for eight hours."

Instantly Sarah changed. At first it did not seem such a bad punishment to her, but she soon found that she was mistaken.

She was standing on the nursery shelf when nurse came in. Of course she did not know the cup and saucer was Sarah. With her one ear Sarah heard her say:

"Lucy—sick—take—cup."

She was able to hear only every other word.

Nurse poured out some medicine into

"WHAT ABOUT HER RED HAIR RIBBON?"

Sarah could not hear her. She leaned down and in doing so snapped one of the lily stalks with a loud noise.

"Some one is listening!" exclaimed the fairy in pink. Then she saw Sarah. "Who are you," she cried, "and what are you doing here?"

"My name is Sarah," replied Sarah. She did not answer the other question. "Have you ever been here before?" asked the fairy in blue.

Sarah shook her head. "You see," she began. The fairies did not heed her. They were repeating:

"Her name is Sarah. It is the first time she has been here."

Presently they said: "The queen will be here soon. When she comes she will decide what is to be done."

Sarah did not know what that meant, but she answered politely:

"Oh, that will be jolly."

She tried to talk with the fairies, but they pretended not to hear her. Before long the queen, followed by many fairy godmothers, appeared.

The fairy in pink hurried up to her and whispered in her ear. The queen straightened her crown as she sat down on a large toadstool, saying:

"Bring her before me at once." She turned and said something in a low voice to the godmothers, who exclaimed in chorus:

"Really!"

The fairy in blue and the fairy in pink came to Sarah and said:

"The queen will hear you now."

Sarah was greatly pleased and stepped forward. She had to take only one step, though the fairies took a great many to keep up with her. All the godmothers looked at Sarah, shaking their heads.

"What is her name?" asked the queen.

"Sarah," replied the fairy in blue. Then she added, "She says it is the first time that she has ever been in the garden at night."

"You see," began Sarah, but all the fairies cried:

"Silence!"

The fairy in pink explained: "We were sitting on the lily leaves when she tried to overhear our secrets. She was hiding behind the lilies."

All the godmothers murmured "Oh" at this.

The oldest, as well as smallest, of the godmothers walked over to the queen.

the cup. It was so bitter that Sarah could feel herself shrivel up. Then nurse took her by the ear, which was the handle of the cup. Sarah screamed, but nurse did not hear her. Lucy took the cup and drank out of it.

The nurse washed it in soap and water. This was terrible. Sarah was surprised that she did not drown.

In some way Sarah reached the kitchen and stood with the rest of the cups and saucers on the pantry shelf. The cups and saucers were busy quarreling. They all tried to get in the back row, so as not to be used. Two green cups ran for the same place, and just as one was about to secure it the sugar bowl dropped its top off. This startled them so they ran together with a crash, breaking each other's handles off. Of course after this they could not hear at all.

As Sarah was the youngest cup she had to stand in the front row. When cook came in the cream pitcher pushed her into cook's hands.

Then came the worst of all. Cook poured hot coffee into her. Sarah gave such a start that she spilled the coffee into the saucer.

When she finished she started to plunge Sarah into a large dishpan of hot water.

Sarah sprang away and fell to the floor, making a loud noise. She had broken into a hundred pieces.

Then Sarah opened her eyes. She found she was in her own room at home. Quickly she put her hands up and felt her ears on again.

Springing out of bed, she looked on the shelf. There was no cup and saucer there, while on the bureau hung her red hair ribbon.—New York World.

Handsomest or Most Handsome?

Perhaps you are sometimes bothered about the right form of the adjective "handsome" in the superlative degree. Many persons are, thinking that the word should be compared, handsome, more handsome, most handsome, because it has two syllables. The general rule is that adjectives of more than one syllable are compared in that way, but this is one of the exceptions. It is a dissyllable ending in mute "e" and is therefore compared as if it were a word of one syllable. Remember all these little things, and they will aid you in acquiring a thorough knowledge of our language, the best capital you could have for any vocation in life.
